

OTH

Oh, the Humanities!

Issue II

Published by the Third Chapter Project, Inc.

In This Issue

FEATURE

Dr. Lorely French discusses the art and legacy of Ceija Stojka and offers reflections for their application during the current pandemic.

AROUND THE WEB & INDUSTRY NEWS

Cats on the Keyboard: Observations and Musings on Teaching with Zoom

Air UP accepted into Association of University Presses

$7.7 million to HBCUs for preservation projects inc. historic libraries

OTH

Oh, the Humanities!

NEW OTH WEBSITE

oth.thirdchapter.org

Visit the new OTH website if you are interested in contributing a piece for an upcoming issue or advertising with us!

You can also email oth@thirdchapter.org with any questions.

Lessons from 75 Years Ago: Writer and Artist Ceija Stojka on the Liberation of Bergen-Belsen, the Typhus Epidemic, and Remembering Ravensbrück

By Lorely French

75 years ago, the typhus epidemic raging among inmates in Bergen-Belsen concentration camp caused the British liberators to burn the camp down. Visual and written depictions by Austrian Romni Ceija Stojka, a child survivor of the camp, give pause for reflection during our contemporary pandemic.

photo credits: © Nachlass Ceija Stojka: Hojda Willibald Stojka, Wien, Photos by: Matthias Reichelt

READ

waldo

WESTCHESTER ACADEMIC LIBRARY
DIRECTORS ORGANIZATION

Why WALDO? Click above to learn more!

- No annual membership dues
- All contract discounts passed to subscribers with a percentage service fee applied
- Independent and market driven
- No exclusive contracts
- Special offers & promotions throughout the year
- Lower annual increases
- Updated accessibility terms

Industry News

DISCOVER

IntechOpen

www.intechopen.com

OTH Original

Cats on the Keyboard: Observations and Musings on Teaching with Zoom

By Edward Reiner, Assistant Professor
Center for Publishing, NYU

Around the Web

Air UP accepted into Association of University Presses, Via Air UP

\$7.7 million to HBCUs for preservation projects inc. historic libraries, Via The National Park Service

Third Chapter

From the Blog

Listening to the Voice of Africa

From Third Chapter President Lee Walton

As anyone who has ever tried to help another can tell you, your assistance will only be helpful if the need and the solution match up. You cannot give a 10-year-old child a car when what they need is a ride. This holds true for nonprofits as well. As we work toward the establishment of Third Chapter in Africa, it is vital that we listen to the community that we hope to serve. To that end, here are the steps we are taking to hear this voice at Third Chapter...

Continue Reading

Staff News

The Third Chapter Project, Inc., wants to welcome Dr. Teboho Moja to the Third Chapter board of directors! We are also excited to introduce members of our African Studies Advisory Board. Learn more at <https://www.thirdchapter.org/people/>.

