

SHARE:

Join Our Email List

OTH
Oh, the Humanities!
®

FIND PEER-REVIEWED COURSE
CONTENT BY SUBJECT

Issue IX

Published by the Third Chapter Project, Inc.

IN THIS ISSUE

FEATURES

The Poetry of Government Information

by Amy Brunvand

Letter from the OTH Editor

by Oh, the Humanities!

IN THE INDUSTRY

BIPOC in the Built Virtual Wikipedia Edit-a-thon

via Yale University Library in partnership with MIT Libraries

Central European Press Announces New Director

via CEU Press

Amanda Gorman Steals the Inaugural Show and

Sounds the Power of the Humanities

via Forbes

OTH
Oh, the Humanities!
®

ADVERTISE WITH OTH

Reach an audience of 20,000 faculty,
librarians, publishers,
and more in the humanities by
advertising in the next issue of OTH!

With low-rates,
transparent reporting,
and high-quality content
to go next to your ad,
you can't go wrong
partnering with OTH!

Nominations for Cambridge University Press's Dedicated Teacher Awards Are Open via Cambridge University Press

Email OTH to learn more.

FEATURES

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

University of Michigan Press publishes the highest quality books in the humanities and social sciences. The Press is increasingly publishing free-to-read and open access content, available to read at fulcrum.org/michigan.

The 2021 University of Michigan Press Ebook Collection (UMP EBC) is now available! It is particularly topical in its emphasis on

- public policy, voter behavior, and social justice
- diversity, equity, and inclusion, especially anti-racism
- international relations and area studies, with a particular focus on East and Southeast Asia

Learn more at press.umich.edu/librarians.

The Poetry of Government Information

by Amy Brunvand

It's an amusing game to seek out government information in poetry, but is it relevant to the practice of librarianship?

From the Original Abstract

"Now that so much government information is online, this gloomy subterranean library may someday come to seem like pure imagination, a poet's fanciful invention of an impossibly drab occupation."

Originally published by the American Library Association

READ NOW

Letter from the OTH Editor

by Chris Plattsmier, OTH Editor

Reflecting on OTH's relaunch in 2020 and looking ahead.

READ NOW

EVENTS

BIPOC in the Built Virtual Wikipedia Edit-a-thon

"Join Yale University Library in partnership with MIT Libraries and the Yale School of Architecture M.E.D Working Group for Anti-Racism February 22 - 26 for the BIPOC in the Built Virtual Wikipedia Edit-a-thon"

LEARN MORE & REGISTER

NEWS

Central European Press Announces New Director

January 5 — "CEU President and Rector Michael Ignatieff, announced today that Emily Poznanski, current Director of Strategy at the highly respected academic publishing house, De Gruyter in Berlin, will join CEU Press as its new director on February 15, 2021."

READ MORE

Amanda Gorman Steals the Inaugural Show and Sounds the Power Of the Humanities

via Forbes

READ

Nominations for Cambridge University Press's Dedicated Teacher Awards Are Open

This is a global competition in which you can nominate a current teacher for something wonderful they've done. Nominations are open until 12 March 2021.

LEARN MORE

OTH Submissions

We want to hear from you!

OTH is looking for submissions (500-1000 words) on the following topics:

- Humanities advocacy under a new presidential administration and what are the challenges ahead?
- How will humanities and social science scholars evaluate the past four years in the immediate "aftermath" and going forward?
- Leaving behind a difficult 2020, what lessons are scholars and educators bringing to the new year in their classrooms and own professional development?
- Libraries and information literacy: what is your library doing to support information literacy on campus and in your community?

Of course, we are always looking for your own opinions, stories, or interesting projects to talk about as well! Submit below or email oth@thirdchapter.org.

Submit a piece for OTH

OTH Masthead

© 2021 Edward Reiner

Published by The Third Chapter Project, Inc.

Editor: Christopher Plattsmier

Editor/Contact Manager: Clare Doyle

Advertising: Kathleen Scholz-Jaffe

Email OTH for more information about advertising with us!

The Third Chapter Project, Inc.
Oh, the Humanities!
oth.thirdchapter.org

